Notifications by Government of India, Resident, Chief Court, &c.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Circular No. 9485-92, dated 19*th February* 1907.

With reference to para 3 of Government Proceedings No. R. 6267-77—Agri. 131-05-13, dated 21st December 1906, regarding arrangements for collecting information of the economic and agricultural well-being of the people for purposes of the Famine Code, the Revenue Commissioner issues the following Circular :—

1. By Section 10 of the Code, village officers are required to report to the Amildar through the shekdar apprehension or existence of distress, unusual movements of people and of flocks in search of fodder and similar indications of coming scarcity together with information regarding the state of the market, crops and public health. The attention of the village officers and shekdars is drawn to this important duty and Amildars, Assistant Commissioners and Deputy Commissioners are requested to explain to them the provisions of the section at the time of the jamabandi and during their tours and enforce prompt submission of the reports in question.

2. At present weekly returns of rainfall are submitted by Amildars to Deputy Commissioners, copies thereof being sent to Assistant Commissioners occasionally. In compliance with Section 12 (c), the Amildars should invariably submit duplicates of the returns to the Assistant Commissioner in charge of taluks.

3. Further instructions on other matters referred to in the Government Proceedings above referred to will be issued hereafter.

Notification No. 9539, dated 28*th February* 1907.

Under Article 472 of the Service Regulations Mr. C. Rajagopalachar, Amildar of the Krishnarajpete Taluk, is permitted to avail himself of the one month's privilege leave granted to him in this office No. 7834, dated 19th January 1907, with effect from the 4th March 1907.

2. As previously ordered, K. N. Ramachandraiya, the Taluk Sheristadar, will be in charge of the taluk during the absence of Mr. Rajagopalachar on leave or until further orders.

No. 9624, dated 1*st—4th March* 1907.

Under Article 177 of the Mysore Service Regulations, Mr. B. T. Seetharamaiya, sub pro tem Amildar of the Mandya Taluk, is granted privilege leave of absence for twenty-two days with effect from the 27th February 1907 or from the date of availment subject to the production of the necessary Comptroller's certificate.
